My Commitment

Serving in Family Ministries is a big responsibility. We are counting on you to serve wisely and faithfully. The children you serve are counting on you to speak truth and show love. The parents you serve are counting on you to set a godly example for their children and keep them out of harms way. Please affirm that you are willing to make the following commitments as you serve:

1. I will be an example to the younger children in my speech and conduct.
2. I will be faithful to the commitments I make, realizing that others will be counting on me.
3. I will make every effort to communicate with my leaders when I am unavailable or something unexpectedly comes up.
4. I will be teachable when leaders give me suggestions on how I can improve in my service.
5. I will do my best to be helpful, focused, and enthusiastic as I serve.

Please sign below and have a parents sign, and then return to the Church Office.
