A ministry partner organization is:

- Mission and vision aligned with the VCB Strategic Plan
- Fiscally sound
- Classified as a 501(c)(3) with not for profit status with the IRS
- Focused on a holistic approach to improving the lives of people (i.e., through opportunity, empowerment and support, clients are encouraged to be self-sufficient)
- Providing opportunities for VCB members and attenders to serve in various activities (not just financial support)
- Willing to develop and engage in relationship building
- Communicating their needs regularly to us
- Able to describe how any financial support would be utilized

What can a ministry partner expect of us?

- A yearly review of support

- Time to develop our relationship
- Open communication and dialogue
- A liaison to be the primary contact at VCB (internal champion)

What can we expect from a ministry partner?

- Fiscal responsibility and wise use of our support
- A willingness to communicate their mission and needs to both our leadership team and the congregation
- Opportunities to serve for VCB members and attenders, along with any necessary training
- A single point of contact to interact with our liaison
- Sharing stories and testimonials with us to communicate with the congregation
